CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

The University, was originally built as an electoral residence in 1697—1728 and transformed to its present use by Frederic William III. in 1818, it having in the meantime been rebuilt after the destruction by fire in 1775. About 8,500 students are educated here, including the Hohenzollern Princes; the present German Emperor is among the most famous ex-students.
